We went for Sunday lunch with family, only after we had ordered our food and received our drinks were we told that there was a 30 minute wait on food orders. Of course 30 minutes became one hour and with a small child, a long wait was pushing it. When it came the food was nice enough but we thought the children's meals weren't value for money. Also £9.50 for a large glass of Malbec must be a record for a pub! Otherwi... read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. WLAN is available free of charge. What Francesca Wright doesn't like about The Rising Sun:

The Rising Sun is in a gorgeous location on the edge of the New Forest. Ponies roam around the front of the pub there are plenty of lovely walks. It is also great for children as there is a really good park in the pub garden. There is a good varied menu. We have eaten here a couple of times and have found the food to be very average. It tastes like frozen, rather than home made. The deserts again sound lovely, but are n... read more. Want to spice up your eating and drinking routine? Come to this sports bar and enjoy a variety of small snacks and dishes while watching live football, tennis or Formula 1 games, because just eating and drinking is too boring!, For breakfast a delicious brunch is offered here. Moreover, there are a wealth of classically British menus on the card that will evoke nostalgic feelings in every Brit abroad, Moreover, the delicious desserts of the house shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
