First time visiting here and would return! It's great to have the set menu and try a few new things, the main courses are cooked in front of you which is a bit of a show, and the chefs are friendly and interact with you....You also get a lot of food for the price, we couldn't finish everything we had there was so much! I would say it's more suited to larger groups, there were of us so we were sat on a table with anot... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Gary Cook doesn't like about Miyako Teppan-yaki:

You can always expect to pay a little extra for good food, and that's the case here. Chinese, Cantonese or Japanese dining is in my opinion is always expensive, but here it also includes entertainment! I recommend the set menu here, which is best for value. Several choices range from and the good thing is that as a group of people one person is not excluded because they want a fish set menu and every else chooses not... read more. For you, Miyako Teppan-yaki from Birmingham prepares delicious sushi (e.g., Maki and Te-Maki), in many other versions, with fresh ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, there are also tasty vegetarian menus on the menu.
