It's always a pleasure to visit this well-established Leeds watering-hole. They keep a good range of traditional ales in excellent condition, and service is always first class. It can get busy, particularly on match days, but you're never waiting too long at the bar. I've never been particularly impressed by the food here though, nor by the portion sizes, and I was rather shocked by the prices on my most recent visit... read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is no-charge WLAN. If the weather conditions are right, you can also have something to eat outside. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Scarbrough in Leeds traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a sweet Trifle, Inthemorning a versatile brunch is offered here. You can just get one of the fine sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, if you're not that hungry, Likewise, the visitors of the restaurant prefer the extensive selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment provides.
