My wife and I went here for our lunch, never been before and wasn't expecting anything great, we were wrong!! The staff were pleasant and the food delicious, I had the Beef curry and chips while my wife had a massive baked potato with Prawns. The portions were very generous at a very reasonable price. Although this place is a cafe, it should not be under rated. read more. As a guest, you can use the WLAN of the restaurant free of charge, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What NewBrightonGuy doesn't like about Caffi Pen Y Dref Cafe:

A bit disappointed as I stopped in for brunch today to be told that any food coming out of the kitchen would require at least an hour's wait. Obviously, it was good that this was flagged at the beginning and I had the choice to stay or go, but the place didn't look that busy with half the tables empty, so no idea why the wait would be so long. I elected to go, so can't comment on the food. For those visiting, be aware... read more.
