The Plaice To Be, formerly known for its greasy chips and poor service, has undergone significant changes. The prices have increased while portion sizes have shrunk and quality has deteriorated. Many customers have complained about the unfriendly staff and high prices. However, some still appreciate the variety of food options offered, from fish and chips to kebabs and burgers. The restaurant is conveniently located near public transportation. The owner's management style has become a point of contention among diners, leading to mixed reviews overall. Despite some positive feedback on certain menu items and service quality, the recent changes and lackluster customer experience have left many disappointed.
