We chose this place at random for a Saturday brunch. The place is just opposite the Bromley South station and when we entered the place was nearly full. The patrons asked us to choose a seat if our liking and was with us shortly to take our order. We were served pretty quickly and the food had healthy portions. We had ordered one veggie breakfast and one make your own breakfast. The food was good and reasonably priced... read more.

What Duncan Stewart doesn't like about Bromley Fish Chips:

I sat here on Monday night because I'm looking for a burger. the prices were in order. they have a friendly staff. the burger I ordered was a quarter-peter with a cheese, and they wore on it. the taste was good and certainly killed my wish that I will come back in any case if I need a fast meal in the night. I have to try their fish and chips. read more.
