Great lunch once again in this lovely pub. We always have lunch here when we are in the area, great choice of food and such nice friendly staff and with a bus stop right outside its really easy to catch a bus into Oxford Centre for a spot of shopping after lunch. A nice surprise was the newly refurbished garden which looks so pretty a nice spot for a pint or a coffee. Just love it here. read more. As a customer, you can use the WLAN of the restaurant free of charge, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What natchanning doesn't like about Duke Of Monmouth:

Once again, another appalling experience with green king. Unfortunately this was our only choice for food due to our very short stay. The food is awful. I vowed never to eat in a green king again but I swallowed my pride and ventured in, but as I expected, they failed miserably. Green king need a massive overhaul and staff that care about what they present to paying customers read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: Duke Of Monmouth in Oxford traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle,

Likewise, the visitors of the restaurant prefer the large variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment provides. If you decide to come for breakfast, you are offered a versatile brunch, Don't miss the chance to enjoy the tasty pizza, prepared straight out from the oven in an original way.
