Had our lunch here as a stop off while going around Liverpool. Quite a dark interior looking spoons. Ordered a chicken Tikka as it was curry day aswell as a fried buttermilk burger. Well done chips was also a request when ordering was taking place. The food arrived really quickly and was absolutely stunning. All of it was perfect and the chips were just as requested. This is the nicest meal I've had so far in a spoon... read more. As a customer, you can use the WiFi of the restaurant free of charge, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. Mike G doesn't like about The Lime Kiln:

This Spoons has gone down hill so quickly in the past year or so.. Had a breakfast at 10am when the pub was quiet, it arrived freezing cold, sausages over fried and dry, egg hard. and bacon like leather.. A lot of staff have left for other venues and this has left this place very short handed.. Tables left uncleared for long periods and not cleaned properly, and this weekend the gents toilets were closed for work t... read more. A roundtrip through

Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Lime Kiln in Liverpool traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a fine Trifle, You shouldn't miss the opportunity to try the flavorful pizza, baked fresh in an traditional manner. At the bar, you can still relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Of course, you also have to try the delicious burgers, that come with sides like fries, salads, or wedges offered.
