Visited 10 April 17 for Rosie s wedding. Fantastic place, traditional and warm welcome. Wedding food can be bland, this wasnt, great soup, succulent beef, fresh veg, sorbet then a colorful tasty desert too. Nice seating area outside, wedding was complete success, excellent. We were there for a conference dinner. It took more than two hours for the last person to be served.

There was a single spot with food and everyone (maybe 200 people) had to queue to get something to eat, so the line lasted for over two hours. By the time I got something to eat, they had ran out of alcohol. I payed 55€ for a plate of potato and noodle salad and one glass of white wine. But the castle is very pretty. read more.
