What TravelJunkieNW likes about Castle Murray House: This property has a stunning location and one of the best parts of the meal is sitting in the conservatory having a coffee after the meal looking out to sea. Usually this place is a 'once a year' treat because it's not cheap, but at the moment they have a special Sunday Menu at 25€ for 4 courses. It is true that you have to pay a bit extra for their signature starter (lumps of fish in garlic butter covered in grilled... read more. What holidayseeker doesn't like about Castle Murray House:

We love this restaurant but were a bit disappointed today in the Sunday Lunch. It is advertised at 25 euro but any of the interesting items on the menu have a £5 surcharge (starters included) which in reality can make the lunch 35 euro or more. We paid the supplement for the small monkfish and prawn starter which was delicious but 3 small prawns and 3 morsels of monkfish in garlic butter for 5 euro extra! The steak o... read more.
