We had a very pleasant lunch here on October. Our only criticism was that we were not asked for our vaccine passes. As there was plenty of space in the outside area, we decided to stay anyway. It was a nice spot overlooking a river and had excellent air circulation. So we felt safe enough. Staff were very pleasant and helpful. Toilets were spotlessly clean and had plenty of paper and soap. We ordered two wraps with t... read more. What nice staff, which was served quickly on Sunday afternoon afternoon, was eating delicious, but very small portions for the 2 netzens we were ordered regarding the price, compared to similar meals / cost elsewhere. also we were offered a by-shalate with the meal, both said yes, no point in considering the minute quantity on the tellers. why offer if there is hardly any garnish.

User doesn't like about Rivers Edge:
