The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about The Loose Box And Kitchen:

Our visit to the Loosebox did not begin well, and the girl who welcomed us had no record of our booking. It was very busy and without obvious reservation we could not sit in the central part and ended up by the bar. We waited 30 minutes for our starter and then 40 minutes for the main course. The food was satisfactory and the staff was friendly, but the service gave the impression, badly organized and haphazard. read more.
