After a delightful walk around Lewes incorporating the old Priory, Anne of Cleaves owned property and the Castle, we walked down the high street and over the river and found this little gem, full of character and reasonably priced. It had been a very hot morning, so a shaded seat in the courtyard was most welcome. A large pot of tea was ordered together with a pain au chocolate and a piece of orange cake. Delightful.... The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What T2872ZJdavidd doesn't like about Cafe Du Jardin:

The fish pie was of decent quality but the steak was not only very ordinary, and most unappetising in appearance, but accompanied by the most forlorn looking sad little side salad. Difficult to understand how such a dish could be served up! read more. You can at Cafe Du Jardin from Lewes taste delicious vegetarian menus, in which no animal meat or fish was brought into play, Particularly fans of the English cuisine are excited about the extensive selection of traditional meals and love the typical English cuisine. Not to be left out is the large selection of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, Furthermore, you can get sweet treats, cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot drinks here.
