What User likes about Shimla:

I went with family members early evening wanting something different to the Christmas fayre. Shimla's is a traditional low key restaurant none of this style over substance. It does a brisk trade in takeaways but we had a sit down meal. The poppadums and chutney come automatically and we shared three starters between four adults. The main courses were delicious. If you like something creamy and mild, go for the chicke... read more.

The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Shimla:

Ordered a meal for collection, the wrong order was given to us and the food was terrible. The ONE pompadom that was given with the order was awful, I could taste that the oil used to cook it was old and of poor quality. When we rang back to say that they had given us someone else's order the staff were unhelpful in the extreme. No apology, no offer to replace it with what we had ordered. We will not be eating from Sh... read more. If you want to a beer after work and hang out with friends, Shimla from Kilkenny is a good bar, One also prepares dishes finely and freshly with original Indian spices.
