I ordered a few times from here. vada pav is ingwer lick good and served with chutneys and green chili. the alu wadi (patra) was extremely tasty and a traditional gujarati Indian dish. the sabudana khichadi was a great disappointment filled with oil. there was literally floating on a bed oil. Besides there were no strokes, only white khichdi. read more. What sejaluk doesn't like about Shri Sai Vada Pav:

The place needs inspection. It is filthy, the tables don't get cleaned, the guy taking order kept putting his fingers in his nose. Not the friendliest service either, didn't get a smile once. The floor looked like it hadn't been mopped in a month. Never visiting again. Not sure how they've managed to get 4.5 overall rating. read more. The customers love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Shri Sai Vada Pav from HARROW, with its creative Asian fusion cuisine - the perfect blend of familiar meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, The menus are usually prepared in a short time and fresh for you. The dishes are prepared typically Asian, here they serve a appetizing brunch in the morning.
