What a little gem, set on the green in Reeth village is this fab hotel and restaurant, we only had dinner here as we're staying nearby, actually dangerously close The staff were great and we had a good giggle with them during our visit the food was fantastic we couldn't fault a thing also they have a good wine and drinks menu. The lounge area, restaurant and outside area were stylish and clean with lovely view across... read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also be served outside. What MikeSensky doesn't like about Burgoyne:

Given the prices I found this restaurant rather uneven in terms of the quality of the food. The duck starter was enjoyable and the venison first rate, however the cheese was cold and uninspiring given the high quality of local cheeses available it was supposed to be local cheese but included some rather tasteless Gouda). Wine was available by the glass but no halves) and the Shiraz tasted as if the bottle had been op... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: Burgoyne in Richmondshire traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle, The customers of the establishment are also thrilled with the comprehensive selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers. If you want to have breakfast, a tasty brunch awaits you, Moreover, the drinks menu of this gastropub offers a good and especially comprehensive variety of beers from the region and the world that are definitely worth a try.
