After a trip on the river (Cotswolds Boat Hire) we found a pretty tea garden in the village of Buscot. We had sandwiches, pasties and cakes. Everything was good quality. We were served by friendly, helpful staff. We shall return. read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Benjamin Hill doesn't like about Buscot Tea Rooms:

On a blazing sunny day, the side garden was in the shade but closed. The main garden was unbearable due to the sun the parasols were too small to be of any use. I asked if we could use the shady side garden and...as told No it's closed We decided to eat in the car park instead! Save yourself money and buy your sandwiches/lunch somewhere else or take your own and go to the weir area. We will not be using the over-rate... read more.
