Really lovely Shepherds Neame pub in Bloomsbury. The single room ground floor bar is small and cosy; dark wood and stained glass. Also an upstairs dining room. Really friendly staff, a very warm welcome and well kept ales. Definitely worth a visit. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather, and there is complimentary WLAN. What travel2472018 doesn't like about The Bloomsbury Tavern:

Really can't go in here again. Not my first review, Shepherd and Neame brewery should look into this place. An ale drinker gets only one Neame ale choice and I thought it may have been a bit off as I was eating peanuts but when I had finished the peanuts I was half way through the drink and realised it was flat and off. Got up and said you should sort the beer out it's not right and the reply was I will let them know... read more. At The Bloomsbury Tavern from Camden, there are scrumptious sandwiches, small salads and other snacks for quick hunger in between, as well as cold and hot beverages, At the bar, you can relax with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Furthermore, there are several typically British meals on the card that give every Englishman abroad the feeling of being at home, And of course, you should also try the scrumptious burgers, with sides such as fries, salads, or wedges offered.
