Cosy atmosphere, great food, lovely staff. Well, that pretty much sums it up. We discovered this place whilst out on a bike ride last Sunday and had some great food. Tried it again last night, we weren't disappointed. Smoked mackerel pate and mushroom on toast...starters. Both delicious. Rib eye steak cooked to perfection. Ham, egg and chips for me..... too good. Sticky toffee pud dessert- spot on. Keep up the good wor... read more. You can use the WiFi of the establishment free of charge, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about The Rising Sun:

Busy with locals and visitors. Restaurant staff hit and miss. Our waitress on presenting the bill, asked if we wanted to leave a tip at the table rather than allow us to use the card machine to discreetly add it. She made error even then...on maths. This is a regular venue for us, we will return but young staff need etiquette training. The food was very good as usual. read more. If you feel like a dessert, you should visit The Rising Sun because they have tasty desserts that will surely satisfy the sweet-tooth in you, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
