This is our very favourite deli. The mezzes, wraps, lentil soup and coffee are all excellent but today I had shakshouka for the first time and it was completely sublime. Elias is enormously welcoming and a meal at David's Deli is always a very happy occasion. read more. As a guest, you can use the WiFi of the place at no extra cost, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. If the weather are right, you can also eat outside. What Hannah Walker doesn't like about David's Deli:

Although Davids does not look like the most fancy place from the outside, they serve in my opinion some great shisha and food. The staff are all friendly and have memorised my order now which is always great. The only issue is that recently they have become too busy and sometimes you have to wait minutes for table! Although there are many alternatives much closer to where I live, this is my favourite spot! read more.
