What User likes about Antrobus Arms: We arrived at the Antrobus without booking on a busy Sunday afternoon but were swiftly found a table. The pub appears to have been tastefully modernised and the room we were in was light and airy. The staff were friendly and efficient without being intrusive and we didn't have to wait long for our meals. Suffice to say that we weren't disappointed, the Antrobus lives up to its billing as a gastropub, the quality of t... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. WLAN is available without additional charges. What User doesn't like about Antrobus Arms:

We visited in the evening last week and the pub itself is lovely and staff pleasant but my husband's meal, hand raised steak and Weetwood ale pie, was very disappointing. The steak was very gristly and most chunks were inedible because of this and left... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: Antrobus Arms in Cheshire West and Chester traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle, here they serve a diverse brunch in the morning.
