We visited here at the weekend with our granddaughter. There was a varied menu and our food arrived quickly. Service was engaging and pleasant. Prices were good and portions generous. Definitely a lovely place for lunch. read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Sampaguita:

Stopped for lunch but ended up just having coffee so can comment on food. Requested use of the toilet to be told it was through the kitchen so we would have to wait until food preparation ceased. When we used the toilet we had to...transit through the food preparation area and the toilet was very poor, put us off so we moved on. read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: Sampaguita in Wiltshire traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle. Also, the customers of the restaurant love the comprehensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. The menus are prepared typically Asian, here they serve a comprehensive brunch in the morning.
