We booked for four of us for afternoon tea, which we brought my parents in law to s was their first ever afternoon tea! Service was excellent, the sandwiches, scones little cakes were delicious and we upgraded to a glass of Prosecco for an extra £2 per person, which added to the already excellent value for money all served in delightful surroundings. I would recommend and will definitely return, hopefully for a spa e... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What martindZ397GS doesn't like about Parsonage Country House:

Stayed here with friends over several nights.the property needs urgent refurbishment and staff retraining. Receptionist and night porter together with the waiter in the Fat Abbot all haveappalling attitudes and create a very poor impression .All were extremely unhelpful and appeared to dislike their jobs which reflects in their service read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: Parsonage Country House in York traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a sweet Trifle, At the bar, you can unwind with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Parsonage Country House. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known meals too boring can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients taste, The fine sandwiches, small salads and other snacks are also suitable for a snack.
