If you want somewhere with terrible customer service and a waitress who can't crack a smile or say thank you, this is the place for you. Had to help myself to get cutlery once the food was on the table. The soup was meant to be a starter and was brought after the main courses. The waitress forgot half of our order and we had to ask her many times for the same thing. When we finished our food and asked for the card ma... read more.
