in witham it can't be better! after a Saturday at work, not cook much imagination. so go to tommy tucker to make my dinner for me. the whole experience was pleasant from the road. the young man who took the order did this with a pleasant smile. I didn't have to wait long, though the place was busy. When I came home and unraveled my fish and chips, I knew I was a tasty bite. the dough was golden and crispy and the cod... read more. Absolutely disgusted with this place this evening! I wish I could post this with a zero star rating! Popped in to get some dinner on the way home. Asked the guy to check the ingredients of the sausages as my daughter has some food allergies. He just said it had the allergens in, didn't look. Asked him again to check the packet and was told that they didn't want to serve people with allergies! He continued to wrap up... read more.
