What User likes about Gracehill House:

my wife and I had the most amazing culinary experience here. we still tell our friends about it. my wife chose to start the chili chicken, and I have served the scallops with the best risotto I've ever eaten. for the net I went. for the lamb and chose me for the seabow. each element of both dishes had been cooked for perfection. we both decided on sticky toffee pudding for dessert that was perfect again. the best 3 c... Restaurant is a lot smaller than I thought it would be and a little bit better signage from the car park would help.

The server forgot to write down one of the starter orders even though it was repeated twice at the start and end...of the order. It was modern and clean inside. Food was average and not amazing. Service was a little slow. When I went to pay the server again messed up making my bill £5 more than it shou... read more.
