What Joseph M likes about Manzil:

A fantastic Indian restaurant, we were made to feel very welcome by the waiters. The food was excellent and very tasty plus it was a good sized portion. I'm sure they could have larger a parties as there is a lot of tables to accommodate you. The price was reasonable £88 for 3 drinks and food and a fantastic location read more. In nice weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What sbrighton1 doesn't like about Manzil:

TripAdvisor emailed me to say my review didnt meet community guidelines. Essentially the curry house must have complained about my honesty. So, here I go again. It was a terrible curry. Service was incredibly slow, must have waited 20 mins just to get an order taken in what was an empty restaurant. Then some of the starters came, but not all so had to ask for the others Main meals all served at different times and po... read more. You can at Manzil from Birmingham try delicious vegetarian meals, in which no animal meat or fish was brought into play, With traditional Indian spices, meals are delicious and freshly prepared. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Manzil. Anyone who finds the everyday and generally known dishes too ordinary can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients eat, In addition, the drinks menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a wide diversity of beers from the region and the whole world.
