We were staying in the area overnight and settled on Wagamama for dinner. We were very lucky to get a table as they were very busy but after a short wait we were shown to a table for two. Our waitress was very friendly and helpful and we didn't have long to wait for our food. We shared a Chilli Squid dish, while I had Chicken and Prawn Pad Thai and Mr Sc had Hot Chicken Katsu Curry. We were delighted with our food an... read more. The restaurant offers free WLAN for its guests, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. If the weather are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What Jason S doesn't like about Wagamama:

Having been a huge Wagamama's fan, was very disappointed in my recent experience. Service was slow but for me the real disappointment was the very poor quality food. Chilli Squid starter was pretty bland the Chicken Katsu curry was awful quality of the chicken was nasty and to the point where I left part of my meal which was a first at this chain. The accompanying salad was also pretty underwhelming. I had a similar... read more. The fresh and delicious juices listed on the drinks menu optimally complement the meals of the local, On the daily specials there are also several Asian dishes. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Wagamama.

Anyone who finds the usual and generally known dishes too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients taste, The customers of the restaurant also consider the extensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers.
