Bengal Brasserie Lisburn Road:

great food and service. if they are Indian, do not forget to mention that they want the dishes to be made Indian wise, otherwise eating is very mild and often sweet. the service was wonderful, they listen to the feedback and do not disappoint them. read more. What Erin Wood doesn't like about Bengal Brasserie Lisburn Road: the gulab jamun was perfect – so good that kelly thought it was one of the best desserts she ever tasted, and that's accolade. in a ramikin there was a dark brown, cinnamon- and cardiac-flavoured cake ball that floated in a flat bathroom with sugar syrup – in another there was a soft vanilla ice cream. it sounds so simple, but the aromen worked incredibly well, as the warmth of the teignus-like cake against the cream... The eatery spoils you with a little bit of this and a little bit of that with their appreciated Tapas, Typically, the menus are prepared for you in the shortest time and fresh. Guests also appreciate the utilization of traditional Indian spices, Dishes from Thailand are prepared here with the popular spices and (fish-) sauces.
