We visited to celebrate my Stepdad's birthday and there was 10 of us. All of the food was outstanding, particularly the sesame prawn toasts, which were the best that I have tasted in a long time. My fussy niece reckoned that the chicken balls were the best she has ever tried, too. We had a wide selection of different starters, and all freshly cooked to order. Service was friendly and timely and I can't speak highly e... read more.

The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather, and there is complimentary WiFi. What هند الصامل doesn't like about Champagne Chinese: this dark underworld beeth charing cross is a step back into the time in old london. glitteringly acidified dust on the floor and drinks in barrels, they will not find evil camp here. this is the weeping meets real ale pub with the cuddly excellence of a gastro-pub. my favorite is a cheeseboard with a half pint vintage port in a pewter tankard. great atmosphere, great eating and excellent begging.
