big wetherspoons in the center of keswick. it holds many of the old features of the court and police station. I have decided to build them own breakfast, as this is one of the places where it is available, and it was fast, but delicious. the prices are (very easy) higher that other wetherspoons, but are still excellent. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather, and there is complimentary WLAN. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What russellbrown181 doesn't like about The Chief Justice Of The Common Pleas:

Must be the wetherspoon minimum standards to serve the breakfasts cold. Another minute in the microwave would have made this perfect but cold beans on a Saturday morning aren't ideal. I suppose you can't expect your food to be hot when you're only paying £5 for it. read more. You can at The Chief Justice Of The Common Pleas from Allerdale try delicious vegetarian meals, in which no animal meat or fish was brought into play, Lovers of the English cuisine are impressed by the extensive selection of traditional dishes and enjoy the taste of England. At the bar, you can still relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Naturally, you should also taste the fine burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges served.
