we visited the jolly coopers on a Sunday afternoon after we had brought the dogs for a big walk in the wrest park. I informed them that I am gluten intolerance and I could have a complete frying dinner with all circumcsions. the personal came out to let us know that our food would be a little longer, as the cook thoroughly cleaned everything before I prepared my dinner to avoid cross-contamination. for someone who h... read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is no-charge WiFi. If the weather are right, you can also be served outside. What Downmarket doesn't like about The Jolly Coopers Public House:

We decided to go out for lunch on Easter Sunday at the last minute and I tried to book various eateries only to find that they were all fully booked. The Jolly Coopers however had plenty of availability, with hindsight that should probably have told us something. We ordered two turkey dinners. The food arrived promptly but was served on cold plates and was tepid from the outset. My gravy had a big blob of undissolved... read more. The Jolly Coopers Public House from Central Bedfordshire is a good option for a bar if you want to have a cocktail after work and sit with friends or alone, In addition, the drinks menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a wide selection of beers from the region and the whole world. You can also look forward to tasty vegetarian cuisine, Naturally, you can't miss out on the fine burgers, which are accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges offered.
