We came here as a family of 3 for a Father's Day brunch. The restaurant/cafe has a nice atmosphere. It was busy but the tables were well spaced. The waiter found the perfect corner table for us. All the staff were very friendly. We had the Turkish panini which was excellent. My daughter had the cheese and ham toasty which was literally just that. Slightly disappointed with the toasty as you could probably get the same... read more. As a visitor, you can use the WiFi of the place free of charge, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. At Konak Cafe, you'll find not only the traditional Kebabs done in various, distinct styles, but also the spices well-known for Turkish cuisine - whether on a fine Lahmacun, or in Sucuk or even in one of the various lentil or bulgur salads, Furthermore, the visitors of the restaurant enjoy the large selection of the differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has available. There are also exquisite meals available, typical for Europe, In addition, you'll find sweet delicacies, cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages here.
