doesn't like about Ballyroe Heights:

the hotel is located a whole piece outside of tralee on a main road, but you hear little about it. but you don't get anywhere without a vehicle. from the hotel terrace you have a quite beautiful view. the rooms are not all too large and appropriately furnished. the distances are angled, however, and there is not a chair, because the rooms are distributed on 3 levels in the ground floor and sudterrains. the staff is we...
