I work as a tour driver, came with a group of 8 after a local recommendation. although a prebooking would have been welcome due to the size of the group, they were very welcome and I had excellent feedback on the quality of the coffee. owners could not have been more friendly, good whisky knowledge and the cake is delicious! they also have jewellery and jewellery for sale. We were looking for a light lunch after walking up Ben Rinnes. The place was empty when we came in, a bit strange in the middle of the tourist season. We had paninis and sandwiches, not bad but not much taste. Then cakes, same impression. It seems run by a couple, who is very friendly. Overall not bad but was disappointed.
