Daycale tastes like shit every time. The variation of taste and warm/cold does me every time. free tap water in glass cans is an absolute source, just like the fact that you're covering your own table. Very domestic atmosphere. User doesn't like about Lukemieke:

and after all these years they are still not easy for vegans. I waited years for them to make a vegan dayboard, but not a happy one. Instead, they simply removed the vegetarian part of the meal like main food and sauces that is. and never a vegan dessert in the offer. never again, especially now that there are so many more options in the city for vegan-specific foods. read more. Right now you could possibly be considering healthier eating habits; for such considerations Lukemieke's menu offers a large variety of easily digestible dishes. Moreover, the delicious desserts of the house shine not only in the eyes of our little guests. Surely, it's also a nice event to feel like in the Wild West once, to drink and eat like the cowboys or even the bandits with a drink or two paired with onion rings and a nice spicy burger, there are also tasty vegetarian menus on the menu.
