Had a great Bondi Brekkie here with a group of friends, but when I came to pay I was told 12.5% would be added as I was dining in; well, who would ever take out a full English? They should price meals intended for dining in appropriately, which allows the diner to reward good service accordingly. The menu should also make reference to this standard charge. Plus, who would ever pay £5.50 for a bottle of beer, and then... read more.
