There was quite a queue when we arrived at this particular McDonald's drive thru. We didn't have the most complicated order but also something that required care. Tom delivered our food to us with such an ambitious positivity which I can only aspire to in...my daily life. I believe he had encountered some grief from some customers before us, yet this was undetectable from his exceptional customer service. Although th... read more.

What User doesn't like about McDonalds:

went by drive thru, which placed half of our order and after which please no ice on the first drink was said to move into the first window. we had not finished our order, and we could not edit in the window and add to the other meal. it was not...used if we had finished our order and were just torn along. the employees of the drive have not a nice approach to us when we explained that they did not let us finish and w...
