there are only binary men and women toilets here (plus accessible loo) but was pleasantly surprised that there was a sign in the hearts toilets with sanitary products. great to see such inclusivity in rural somerset. Thank you for making me feel trapped. read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. WLAN is available at no extra cost. What BDoutch doesn't like about The Bishop's Table: Not great, visiting the cafe (as a local) was not a good experience, it was never always great, but now, it's much worse. Whoever thought issuing pagers to collect your orders was a good idea, clearly didn't do their market research (having spoken to quite a few locals with similar opinions). I waited just under 15 mins for a coffee. The cafe had more staff behind the counter? yet, they are trying to save money? no I... read more. For breakfast, you can enjoy a rich brunch at The Bishop's Table, freely at your own will, Naturally, you should also taste the tasty burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges offered.
