Excellent outdoor space to hangout with good quality pale ales. Slightly expensive but very nice quick bites and other food. The pub was filled when we walked in on a Saturday evening and was lively. The table right outside are available to sit, when the inside is occupied. read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. WiFi is available without additional charges. What User doesn't like about The Blackfriar:

went in for what a traditional English breakfast, was ok, but nothing to wake me, the speck tasted over boiled and the eggs were slightly inconsistent in terms of their cooking art, tried black pudding for the first time, but not something I go out to order, but they have great attentive and nice fellow workers. read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Blackfriar in City of London, Westminster traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a sweet Trifle, Moreover, the menu of this gastropub offers a good and especially large variety of beers from the region and the world that are definitely worth a try. You can just get one of the tasty sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, if you're not that ravenous, At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
