What User likes about Hare's Gap Cafe Bistro: I stopped by because I had starved and didn't know it was dead. I had the chicken stable with the Pomme frits. it was really excellent. this was rib eye made in a spicy teig that was on the ground. the fries were cut thin, double-footed and salt/peffered to perfection. the service was great. the menu is typical perini. they make a few things really good. the table next to me had other items on the lunch menu that loo... The first time I experienced the Cafe was great. The second time was a disappointment. The waitress was distracted and simply too busy. We got seated right away but waited a long time- eventually our meals arrived at different times and were not right or incomplete. Food wasn't great. The young lady that waited on us wasn't attentive or kind- just there. Maybe they could use some training and more assistance. I know... read more.
