This compact restaurant has a really wonderful setting on the meeting of Plymouth Sound and the River Tamar and an easy stroll to the historic King William dockyard. The restaurant is in an ancient building; on the night we went it was notable to be at full capacity. Run by an excellent chef and his wife. The food and service were top class. read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat and drink outside. What Jon Freeman doesn't like about The Artillery Tower:

Superb food, enchanting setting and friendly, attentive service. There is something magical about Artillery Towers, making it perfect for special occasions- I cannot recommend it highly enough.
