After a cliff top walk we stopped for lunch here, it's a beautiful spot and the weather was great so we ate lunch outside. We both tried the beer battered haddock, chips and peas. We don't often eat fish and chips as it's nearly always a huge portion that is swimming in a pool of grease. This was the nicest battered haddock that we've had, light, tasty and barely a trace of grease on the plate. So it has to be a 5 fr... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What wenvoeman doesn't like about The Old Sailor's:

We went for lunch on Tuesday 4 July which was not a particularly busy day given that it was midweek and term time. The queue at around 1 pm was out of the door and the nice and efficient guy alone at the bar was rather overwhelmed. The menu is very limited and my wife's choice of a fish platter was sold out! So she had fish in batter instead which she said was not well cooked. I enjoyed a massive ploughman's lunch wi... read more. The The Old Sailor's in Milton Keynes dishes out various flavorful seafood courses, Lovers of the English cuisine are impressed by the extensive diversity of traditional meals and enjoy the taste of England. You can also relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, The tasty sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks can be planned well as a snack.
