Our first visit found by accident whilst passing through Belper! A pretty cafe cum bistro set within a lovely former mill building (worth a visit to the building itself for the fabulous period life with original lift with 2 sliding doors).

Nice décor to the café with mill artifacts adorning the walls and tempting gifts to peruse. Stopped for lunch and treated ourselves to the Vegetable soup served with either bread o... read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, and there is free WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also have something to eat outside. For those who want to have a drink after work and sit with friends or alone, Brettles Bistro from Amber Valley is a good bar, Furthermore, the drinks menu in this eatery is impressive and offers a good and extensive selection of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try. If you decide to come for breakfast, you are offered a tasty brunch,

Also, the visitors of the restaurant love the comprehensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer.
