Great spot for tea and cake while walking around the MK parks, lakes and canals. It's a vegetarian social enterprise for adults who need extra help and they do a great job for the adults and the customers. Also a good choice of gluten-free cakes. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations. Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What Sky163 doesn't like about Camphill:

Had high hopes for this cafe but was a bit disappointed. The restaurant was very noisy although it was pretty empty. It could just be the design of it, lots of wood etc and nothing to absorb the noise. The food was okay, the service was a bit lacking maybe as it was later in the day, not sure we would revisit unfortunately... read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is effortlessly possible when it comes to culinary delights: Camphill in Milton Keynes traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a sweet Trifle. Besides the fine sandwiches, small salads and other snacks also make a good snack. If you decide to come for breakfast, a tasty brunch is ready for you, the menu also includes fine vegetarian menus.
