We ate here on a Saturday night. Restaurant was quietish apart from one table of around 12 people. Waiting staff very friendly and good humoured. Excellent French onion soup, prawns and a very good ribeye steak. My wife's baked sea bass was very good but quite small. Very much enjoyed our meal and would recommend but the room was very cold seemed to be the first cool day for a while and the heating took an age to rea... read more.
