This is a lovely pub in the countryside. My husband and I both had the Spanish pizza which was amazing. What let it down was when I checked the bill before paying there was a £1 voluntary donation . When I queried this with the bar staff I was told they partnered with a local charity and this was a donation to it. They didn 't know the name of the charity but thought it was to do with homelessness. read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What ccristal doesn't like about Wheatsheaf Inn:

Called them in the early afternoon to book a table and left a message on the voicemail, including my number, for them to confirm. Didn't get a call back, so I called again at around 6:30pm to confirm. Whoever picked up the phone was a bit rude, he told me he didn't have a table for us and hung up. read more.
