I was passing and asked if open for eat in, the staff said not yet but gave me a menu. I said that's no good this is my last night in Burnham, so without hesitation, they said come in if you are eating alone we can accommodate that. I ordered poppadoms for starter with two tasty dips, I then had the prawn masala with plain pilau rice and a garlic naan bread. The food was freshly cooked, well served and very tasty it... Spice Fusion:

Tried the goat curry korma chicken. Goat curry tasted OK but tough as he'll with a lot of gristle. I know goat will have a fair bit of bone but meat should be tender. Korma had little taste looked more like a butter chicken. read more.
