What User likes about Major Fish: I was in the area and decided to pop into the famous Majors chippy. It was sad to see chairs on tables obviously due to the current pandemic. I waited in the queue for approx 10 minutes before being served. I ordered a cone of...chips which was small at £1.70, shocking. The chips were OK, but I'm not a fan of battered chips really. What User doesn't like about Major Fish: wing at 20:30 clock with a look from one of the older workers to eat home and she said to fxxx stunning and puffing and say: "hope...we have enough chips" all while she served someone and there were other people at the place. I stopped going two years when I left, they never got what I wanted, but I didn't give them a second chance again! read more. A visit to Major Fish becomes even more rewarding due to the large range of coffee and tea specialties, The tasty sandwiches, small salads and other snacks can be planned well as a snack.
