Having heard the place had recently been 'done up ' we were quite disappointed that it appeared to be the same as it was twenty years ago, bland and dated. The staff are very friendly and there 's a good selection of ales. There was a singer on when we were there on a Friday evening but as we were sat in a snug area around the opposite side we couldn 't hear anything. A good friendly atmosphere but still tired and da... read more.
